

Sat, February 16, 2019

Developing the Young Workforce Regional Groups

Most Local Authorities in Scotland now have Regional Groups established to support the Developing the Youngforce (DYW) agenda.

The Regional Groups are led and facilitated by local Chambers of Commerce in most Authorities. They work in partnership with the Local Authority, Schools, Colleges and young people to help employers shape their future workforce and help better prepare young people for the world of work.

We have three Regional Groups in Highland:

Inverness & Central Highland:

This Regional Group covers from Tain in the North and includes Easter Ross, Inverness & Drumnadrochit, Nairn, Badenoch and Strathspey and is facilitated by the Inverness Chamber of Commerce.

Lead contact for this area is:

Andy Maxtone - DYW Programme Manager

Email: info@dywich.co.uk

Telephone: 01463 228389

For further information visit www.dywich.co.uk.

North Highland:

This Regional Group covers all the Caithness and Sutherland region and is facilitated by the Caithness Chamber of Commerce.

Lead contact for this area is:

Marcus Mennie - DYW Project Coordinator

Email: skills1@caithnesschamber.com

Telephone: 01847 890076

For further information visit www.dywnh.info.

West Highland:

This Regional Group covers Lochaber, Skye and West Ross and is facilitated by the Lochaber Chamber of Commerce.

Lead contact for this area is:

Douglas Ormiston - DYW Programme Manager

Email: douglas.ormiston@lochaberchamber.co.uk

Telephone: 01397 705765

For further information visit www.dywesthighland.org.

Further Information and Contact Details

Street Address: ,