Highland Council Service Point Network

The Service Point Network is your first point of contact with The Highland Council. Our network of front line offices around the Highlands provides local residents with direct face to face access to council services. Our Alness based Service Centre is there to take care of your telephone enquiries, ensuring that calls are dealt with at the first point of contact wherever possible.

Want to pay your council tax, apply for benefits, order a special refuse collection or report a housing repair?

Use our website below to find out where the Service Point nearest to you is located.

Drop by one of our offices or telephone our Service Centre to speak to our trained staff. If we cannot help, we will arrange an appointment with a specialist who can.

All general enquiries, and to book a service telephone the Service Centre: 01349 886 606 (Mon – Fri 8am–6pm, Sat 9am–12pm)
